Grounds: no report.

Improvements: The Round Lake Village plaque at the Curry Road entrance to the Village is now shining thanks to Colin Roy.

On October 11, there was a weed pull along Route 9 in the lakeside area from the boat launch to the picnic area.

If WRLIS is interested in collaborating with Jennifer Hurd on the storybook walk, WRLIS could consider purchasing some of the storybook signs. One location being considered is near the shady playground.

Merry will post a survey on the WRLIS Facebook page.

Website: Chris suggested that the WRLIS email address be used to send out the monthly agenda/minutes and other communications to the membership, rather than Lauren's personal email address. Lauren will work with Chris so that this occurs for the distribution of the November agenda.

Community events are posted on various electronic media – WRLIS website calendar, WRLIS facebook page, Village website calendar, Round Lake facebook pages. Molly suggested that the whiteboard in the Community room be used for a monthly calendar

Membership: The Membership renewal event on October 4 resulted in 20 renewals (single and family). Bagels and cream cheese and apple cider were served.

Lauren will send an email to those on the email list who did not join for 2025 to encourage them to join for 2026 or elect to be removed from the mailing list.

Festivals:

Antiques Festival June 21 – 22: no report. Katie needs to provide a narrative and final report

Markets at Round Lake August 9-10: no report

Gifts (unwrapped) must be returned around Thanksgiving. Elizabeth Brock and Dick Theissen will coordinate the distribution of the tickets.

New Business:

Soup, Salad & a Slice of History: There was general agreement that there would be community interest in this event. Scott Rigney has reviewed thousands of photos for the Round Lake book. Possible topics could be the Casino, sea planes or Palestine Park/City of Jerusalem from 1878. Lauren will coordinate with Scott.

Speakeasy: Molly Stammel volunteered to coordinate this event which will occur this winter.

Tree in memory of Lance Spallholz: Norma Spallholz has suggested two types of trees to be planted. Rob Faivre, who is on the Tree Committee, will work with Nancy regarding placement and the best time to plant.
